OTHER:
Sarah Palin is a lifelong Alaskan who moved here when she was just a few months old. Sarah raised her five children in Wasilla, where she still lives. Her son, Trig, attends Wasilla Middle School. She was “reborn” in her faith in God at age 11, while marveling at the splendor of God’s bounty in Alaska. Even after being thrust into the national spotlight in 2008, Sarah remains a true Alaskan, who will never stop fighting for the greatest state in the Union.

STATEMENT:
I’ve spent my whole career fighting against the self-serving political establishment and fighting for the interests of the hard working men and women of Alaska. I’m not afraid to stand up to my own party in order to do what’s right, and I will work tirelessly to get things done for the benefit of our state and our country.
I believe in responsible development of Alaska’s God-given natural resources, defending our constitutional liberties, ending the culture of death and protecting the lives of the innocent, and securing states’ rights against an overbearing federal government. I’m a tireless advocate for our military and our veterans.

If elected, my first priority will be to help spearhead legislation promoting energy independence. Right now, gas prices across the country are skyrocketing—and Alaska can help do something about it. I will also fight to preserve and protect our right to keep and bear arms, advocate for responsible infrastructure development that leverages federal support for vital projects, and work to end government handouts to able-bodied Americans, cut through the red tape that entangles small business owners, and let the free market do what it does best—generate success for all Americans.
